Gap Year Programs

Graduating hs seniors	Nativ	College Gap Year	Nativ is a challenging academic gap year program in Israel dedicated to creating and inspiring the Jewish leaders of tomorrow. Nativ, which means “path” in Hebrew, provides a unique opportunity to explore new directions on the journey to becoming a Jewish adult. The program includes academic university classes, intensive Hebrew classes, Judaic and yeshiva studies, and innovative leadership training. Nativ enables recent high school graduates to earn college credits for their studies while living in a classroom without walls.
Graduating hs seniors	Hevruta	College Gap Year	Hevruta Gap-Year Program invites Israelis and North Americans to establish a joint community founded on discourse and values in the heart of Jerusalem. Hevruta’s goal is to demonstrate how a community that celebrates learning and social engagement can promote tolerant dialogue in the Jewish world by generating a positive identity discourse based on shared aims and beliefs.
Graduating female hs seniors	Nishmat Shana Ba’Aretz	College Gap year for girls	Our Shana Ba’Aretz program offers post-high school students the opportunity to enter the world of higher Torah learning in an environment which is intellectually rigorous and spiritually nourishing, while experiencing Israel as an insider with fellow-Israeli students. At Nishmat, we seek to help students develop both the skills and love of learning that prepare them for a lifetime of Talmud Torah.
Graduating hs seniors	Mayanot Institute of Jewish Studies	College Gap year for men & women	Creating a Jewishly educated Leadership. The name ‘Mayanot’ was chosen, based on the verse, “Let thy wellsprings (Mayanot) be dispersed abroad.” (Proverbs 5:16), and captures the essence of our vision – that our students are gaining a deep and enduring knowledge of their Jewish heritage, including the spiritual dimensions, and utilizing what they have learned at Mayanot to enrich their environment and communities back home.
Graduating hs seniors	Yeshivat Orayta	College Gap year in Israel for men	Balanced and Inspirational Curriculum Orayta offers an inspirational and comprehensive approach to Torah; combining depth of Torah thought with rigorous text study. Students are encouraged to ask any and every question necessary to forge their own unique individualized relationship with Hashem, Torah life and Eretz Yisrael.

Post High School	Shanat Netzer	College Gap year	Shnat Netzer is a 6-10 month learning and volunteering program wherein participants live in Jerusalem, Nitzana, Kibbutz Ein Ha'shofet and Kibbutz Harduf, and volunteer in different organizations across Israel. Together in Israel students will learn, work, live, volunteer, and experience Israel, its people, social organizations, communities, landscapes and more.
Post High School	Young Judaea Year Course	College Gap Year	Young Judaea Year Course is the largest gap year program in Israel. Participants live in Israel for nine months, earning up to 30 college credits. Together with academic studies, participants strengthen their independence, maturity, and positive value systems, building the skills to thrive and succeed - socially, academically, and as members of their communities.
Post High School	Aardvark Israel	College Gap Year in Israel	Our students experience different sides of Israeli culture with a diverse group of international students, live in the heart of Jerusalem and Tel Aviv, explore their passions through volunteering, buffer their resumes with ambitious internships, learn Hebrew, and earn up to a year of college credit.
